SALT STORAGE

Pouring footers this Wednesday. The next portion will be done on October 20, 2020, and another portion after.

PICKUP

The current highway truck is 6 years old with 100k miles. The funds have been in the budget. Councilman Binns mentioned state bid purchasing a new truck every year due to state bid, this could mean a possibility to break even with trade. Supervisor Jordan asked Superintendent Arnold to collect information for a new truck and present it at next month's meeting.

CAYUGA LAKE WATERSHED

Discussion was held to Possibly continuing funding to the watershed, though mostly in Tompkins County. This will be discussed at next month's meeting.

CCWSA UPDATE

Supervisor Jordan attended the meeting at CCWSA building. A discussion was held regarding a water plant at Longpoint and run water along Lake Rd. The water project will cost approximately $38-40 million dollars. There were several questions and concerns. Residents on Honoco Rd. really want sewage per Supervisor Jordan.

ZONING CHANGES

Chairman Debbie Ross stated the changes that were suggested to her planning board by Code Enforcement, Daniel Green. All changes were discussed among the council. November meeting will be public for Zoning Changes and Budget.
